Collect

Almighty Father,
whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds of those in authority,
and bring the families of the nations,
divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin,
to be subject to his just and gentle rule;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

First Reading: Jonah 3: 1-5,10

The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, 'Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.' So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, 'Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!' And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Psalm 62: 5-end

For God alone my soul waits in silence, for my hope is from him. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be shaken. On God rests my deliverance and my honour; my mighty rock, my refuge is in God.

Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us. Those of low estate are but a breath, those of high estate are a delusion; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than a breath.

Put no confidence in extortion, and set no vain hopes on robbery; if riches increase, do not set your heart on them. Once God has spoken; twice have I heard this: that power belongs to God, and steadfast love belongs to you, O Lord. For you repay to all according to their work.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9: 24-end.

For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgement, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Holy Gospel: Mark 1: 14-20

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.'

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake - for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fish for people.' And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Intercessions

We pray for those who are ill at this time or in other forms of need, especially those we know. We remember Jane, Paul, Edward, Liz, John, Mary, Thelma, Ben, Paul, Phyllida, Ann, Bobbie, Les, Paul, Derek, Julie, Robert, David, Mel, Rita, Norma, Joan, Marion, Rose, Francis, Sue, Tina, Lottie, Rory, Tommie, Carol and Jenny. Be with them in their suffering, support and comfort them and give them peace of mind in times of trouble.'

We ask for your prayers for Pauline Thomas, John Baldwin and Pat Brett, recently departed. We pray for their families and friends and all those who grieve.

Post-communion prayer

God of peace,
whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life:
look with compassion on the anguish of the world,
and by your healing power
make whole both people and nations;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen

New Boiler at St James

Since September 2023 when our boiler was condemned we have been without heating in the church. Having explored alternatives the only feasible solution is a replacement gas boiler. We are just waiting for the necessary permissions but will need to raise £50k to meet the costs of this option.

GOOD NEWS!

We are delighted that Roland Swift will be confirmed at St George's Church in Cam on Sunday 17th November at 3pm by Bishop Rachel.

You are all welcome to come and support him as he takes this important step in his journey of faith as a follower of Jesus Christ.

Revd Jane

Please return your Christmas gift shoeboxes they are due by today (10th November).

I'm sure you will have all heard the very sad news that our dear friend and Churchwarden, Pauline Thomas, died on Sunday 3rd November.

Pauline worked tirelessly as a churchwarden in the Parish of Uley for so many years. We will all miss her drive, enthusiasm and sense of humour.

We send our prayers and love to David and her sons and grandchildren.

I will confirm the details of her funeral as soon as they are confirmed.

May Pauline rest in peace and rise again in glory.
