Uley Parish Council

Annual Meeting

Everyone is warmly invited to the Annual Meeting of the Parish Council. Residents are invited to provide feedback to the Council on any matter they choose. This year the Annual Meeting will be held on Thursday 15th May at 6.15pm in the Village Hall.

Peter Belk (Natural Flood Management Partnership Officer at Gloucestershire County Council) will give a talk on flood management – a topic which is particularly important in the Uley Valley. Wine and fruit juice will be available.

Playground Maintenance: Monday 28th and Tuesday 29th of April

Please note sections of the playground will be cordoned off for two days after the School Easter holidays for maintenance works. The work is scheduled to occur on Monday 28th and Tuesday 29th of April, reminds us that as Spring has sprung so has the steady growth of vegetation on the path edges. So, please remember to take your secateurs on your walks in the coming months.

UPC's Footpath Officer, Bill Bramley

Bonfires

It's been noted that there have been a few bonfires recently in the Valley. Stroud District Council (<https://www.stroud.gov.uk/environment/environmental-health/pollution-and-nuisance/smoke-and-bonfires/smoke-control/>) notes that bonfires often cause a nuisance to neighbours from smoke, smell or dirt. SDC lists the following guidelines:

- Only ever burn dry material
- Never burn household rubbish or anything with plastic, foam, paint, or rubber in it
- Never use old engine oil, methylated spirits, diesel or petrol to light or encourage a fire. Not only does this make smoke, it is also very dangerous
- Avoid lighting fires in unsuitable weather conditions such as damp, still days
- Avoid times when the wind will blow smoke over roads or into neighbour's gardens
- Avoid burning when people want to enjoy their gardens such as at weekends or Bank Holidays
- Air Pollution is described using ten index points, between LOW and VERY HIGH. Avoid burning when air pollution in the area is anything other than Low. You can check this at the DEFRA Air Information Resource at <https://uk-air.defra.gov.uk/> which provides daily forecast levels of air pollution
- Never leave a fire unattended or leave it to smoulder
- Bear in mind the law of statutory nuisance mentioned above; regular smoky bonfires - or even a single one which is very polluting - could be regarded as a statutory nuisance and result in a legal notice being served on you by the Council

Church News

It's been an absolute pleasure to welcome the children and staff from Uley School to the church on a few occasions recently. The first time was when they attended Experience Easter. This gave them the opportunity to re-enact Jesus' last days during the Easter season. Everyone participated enthusiastically, and it was a most rewarding session.

Another event that we are very excited about is called Godly Play, which is a tried and tested approach to developing spirituality and curiosity about matters of faith. It was developed for children but many adults also find it a helpful way of making connections between the Christian tradition and life. We are investing in this approach in Uley, Owlpen and Nympsfield and are hopeful that there are people who will train to become Godly Play Practitioners, both from the churches and schools in the local area. We are hopeful that we can become a Godly Play hub that will help to resource this. Check out <https://www.godlyplay.uk> for more information.

Later today the school will be attending their service before the Easter break. This is always a very joyful time, with some very catchy tunes, attended by everyone connected with the children. A fitting way to start the Easter holidays.

We wish everyone a joyful Easter

ULEY COMMUNITY STORES NEEDS YOU!

SECRETARY

After serving as Secretary for over 7 years, Joanna Hordern Curzon has decided to step down from her vital role of taking & preparing the minutes for the shop management committee.

This is an interesting position for anyone wanting to have an opportunity to be part of the decision making for the shop. Think about it – could you take her place?

If you are interested or would just like to find out more about either of these volunteer roles, please contact Angela Haddrell on 07900 55 22 97 or email accounts@uleycommunitystores.co.uk.

BOOKKEEPER

We are still looking for a bookkeeper for the village shop. Knowledge of Sage/Quickbooks is required for this vacancy which takes about 8 hours a month. Do you have the experience?

Again, please consider this – full support given.

Uley Playing Field and Pavilion

It is a great honour to become the Chairman of the Uley Playing Field Trust. For those of you who do not know me, I was born and bred in the village and I have represented Uley Football Club as a player for over 25 years and as Chairman for 5 years.

My aim as Chairman is to make sure that the excellent work of the previous Chair is continued and that our local sports clubs have a facility they can call home.

Please come to the VE Day Event on 5th May. It will reflect the enjoyment the field has given to residents since its purchase 80 years ago and celebrate their generosity. It would be lovely to see as many people as possible supporting the event in true Uley style.

Thank you to all those who have given generously to our VE Day Appeal which aims to provide much needed funds to replace and properly maintain the the Memorial trees, install new commemorative plaques, and buy specific items for the playing field and pavilion. It is not too late to make a donation so we can reach our target.

Please also consider hiring the facility. This helps to generate much needed income for the general upkeep of the pavilion and playing field which is an absolutely beautiful setting for a family event.

Finally, we are looking to appoint a Fund-Raising Officer to join our fantastic committee. The role will be to boost our annual income for ongoing general maintenance and to help with the organisation of events. If interested, please give me a call.

Kind regards

James Stennett

Church Letter

Dear Friends,

In 2019 I wrote this to begin my May letter, "This season of spring has been a wonderful time of year once again. It rarely disappoints. The blossom has been gorgeous and the scent of new growth in the air has been a joy to the eye and to the nose. The ears too have been serenaded by birdsong. In the little lane by our house as we walk the dog early in the morning, it can be like walking with the very best stereo surround sound clamped to your ears. Breathtaking and glorious assault on our senses!"

Nothing really has changed and these past weeks have been a joy to be alive and what I wrote then is true now. There has however been one change and that is we have a new dog and she is called Waffles. She is 8 years old and she is a bearded collie. She's very loving, a constant companion, responds very enthusiastically to "Shall we go for a walk?" and is a real blessing in our lives.

We have loved our dogs and our cats, who have been part of our lives over the years. Memories may fade, but committing to caring for someone, or a loved pet indeed, changes our focus on what matters in life. Surely the act of loving in this sense, means living with another in mind and therefore not living only for ourselves?

One of the joys and privileges of being a priest is the chance to be with people at some significant moments of joy in their lives. In this month of May I will have the pleasure of being with three couples, their family and friends, as they marry each other and commit to sharing their lives together. I will also have the joy of baptising a child into a church community, that will welcome her and her family, will pray for her life and for her future. Sharing lives together, caring for and living for someone else, will be an important part of all of these people's lives.

It is in a very real sense, a new beginning, a change that is exciting to imagine, particularly if you imagine it together with someone who you love and who loves you. This is the Easter Message. In the Risen Jesus we proclaim a light that dispels darkness, hope where there is despair and love for all humanity. Such an important message for this world at the moment!

The month of May may also be for you a time for rest and recuperation. It may be holiday time and if so, wherever you go and whatever you do, be at home or away, I wish and pray that it will be wonderful and restorative.

Yours in Christ,

Ian

Uley Youth Productions

Our March performance was perhaps the most entertaining whodunnit Uley has seen! Our troop of young people sang, danced and acted brilliantly for a packed village hall – the biggest audience yet, we believe. We are sure everyone had a great evening with not only a great show but some yummy homemade cakes, teas & coffees and a spectacular raffle.

We are so grateful for all the support we consistently receive from our community. This includes raffle prizes from The Vestry Cafe, Rasa's Health and Beauty and Uley Community Stores among many others and including generous cash donations.

We appreciate the time and energy from numerous locals including Maurice Ball for hosting; Vicky Coffey for back-stage logistics; David Lungley, Alexander Taylor and Norman Leete on sound and music; Joan Heaney, our lovely chaperone and many others who help with costumes, props and general support.

And big thanks to all our talented members who not only perform but come up with their own choreography, plots and scripts and stage design.

See you at our next show,

Garden Notes for May

I can't believe I'm well into my second year with these notes.. I'm sure time is speeding up!

Successional Sowing

I confess this is something I aspire to but have yet to nail. Good intentions are there in spades but often fall by the wayside as the rest of the garden jobs compete for attention. Wherever you do your sowing, have a calendar. Charles Dowding (the no-dig guru) has a brilliant one with optimal sowing dates for particular crops but sometimes this can be intimidating. An alternative could be printing out a blank calendar monthly and fill in when and what you sow in one colour and have a different colour for the next sowing date in two weeks time and so on. Add a reminder on your phone if thats how you like to work.

Paeonias - Three types to consider for a long flowering season

These are long lived garden plants for well drained soil in sun. Don't bury the crown or this will result in few or no blooms.

Most commonly planted are the Herbaceous paeonia - these die back every winter and return with fresh new growth every year. The flowers are stunning but have a relatively short flowering time in May/June. Favourites of mine are Sarah Bernhardt (pink) and Duchesse de Nemours (white). They usually require support for the heavy flower heads. More of an investment are through winter. Totally hardy and not requiring pruning they respond with glorious flowers from April to late May. I have 'Godaishu' (white) and 'Shimadaijin' (red). Every year I wait with bated breath for their flowers. Newer to the scene and not yet so readily available are Intersectional Paeonias These are a cross between the herbaceous and tree paeonias resulting in a woody mounding shrub that loses its leaves in winter and will only need pruning back to a swelling bud in Spring. They are long flowering (up to three weeks) and occasionally can produce some flowers in the late summer. They seem to be best of both worlds, being adaptable and resilient, with new colours coming to the market every year. I have yet to try them myself - I'd have to dig something else up!

Tree Paeonia - these grow to be small shrubs, retaining their woody structure

Since all these varieties will last in your garden a long time, its worth buying from specialist producers with tried and tested varieties.

As always, watch for pesky munchers - aphids (wash off with water) and slugs (try garlic spray, beer traps or yeast traps which I'm trialling this year as cheaper than beer and it doesn't matter if it rains. <https://forum.charlesdowding.co.uk/community/topic/slug-snail-trap-using-bakers-yeast/>

Have a fabulous May - how could you not!

Uley WI Diary – April 2025

This month our WI enjoyed a talk by Martin Hudson entitled “Around the World in 23 Days”. Martin was a GP who shared tales from a whirlwind world tour where he acted as the doctor on hand for the needs of the 200 or so travellers on the trip. There were some great stories told.

We have plenty to look forward to in the coming months including celebrating VE Day on Monday 5th May at the cricket pavilion where the WI will be selling cakes, jams and savouries. Please bring cash!

We will also continue our ‘supper club’ events, which are a great way to get to know each other. We have trips planned in June to the theatre and also a canal boat trip near Lechlade and visit to Kelmscott Manor. In July we are embarking on an all-day Sunday coach trip to Highclere Castle. The coming summer will also allow a lot more countryside walks including coffee, cake and ice cream stops aplenty!

Linda Walters hosted a fabulous coffee morning where Gail’s vegan apple cake went down very well.

Please get in touch if you would like to get involved with this wonderful group of women.
